

Book and Author Highlights

Usborne have lots of great activity ideas on their website, including a new story every week!

<https://usborne.com/gb/activities-for-kids/listen-to-a-story>

On Tuesday 2nd February at 10.30am, author Helen Pielichaty will be talking to CBBC presenter Ben Shires live on Facebook about her football series Girls FC. Free e-book available from Monday 1st Feb. Info here

Live weekly broadcast from the Queen of Picture Books, Julia Donaldson—Facebook at 4pm on Thursdays

<https://www.facebook.com/>

OfficialGruffalo/

DK make fantastic reference books for all ages, and their website is a brilliant resource for school topic work, fun facts and more! <https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/>

DK findout!

What do you want to find out?

Walker Books have a YouTube playlist of stories for children:

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLWG1xL3iHZsoUPpqhMsMUBFOXllvtMT8G>

A free e-book about worries in general and how to handle worrying about coronavirus.

<https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/bookshop/jon-burgerman-everybody-worries-free-ebook/>

Banjo Robinson is a paid-for service for 5-8 year olds that will send letters and activities to your child twice a month. If you sign up for newsletters though, they will email free activities every Thursday!

<https://>

www.banjorobinson.com/freebies/

Escape the screens by listening to a free audiobook of Pippi Longstocking on Spotify https://

open.spotify.com/

album/0hHPsk7qhjUORMyGljuQhp and Words of Life have some activity suggestions here

here

Winnie the Witch shows that lockdown can be fun in this free e-book <https://> home.oxfordowl.co.uk/bookshop/winnie-and-wilbur/ - there are activities there too!